Message from your Engagement Officer PC Pete Davison

Happy New year! Last month I highlighted the HMRC Scam, you may have seen in the recent press that there have been further reports of residents being caught out. There have also been reports in the last few days of emails and text messages stating that 'your TV licence will expire' and then offering a link to 'Please set up a new direct debit now'.

If you receive a call, text or email of this nature you should report it to Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040. If you have received a call, text or email of this nature and have handed over money or iTunes/gift voucher details please report it to Norfolk Constabulary on 101.

To find out more about these and other scams you can sign up to Consumer Scam Alerts via the Norfolk County Council website > www.norfolk.gov.uk/business/trading-standards/scams/consumer-alerts
